

College/University Interest Sessions at Louisville 2008

The 2008 Southern Division Convention in Louisville will feature two sessions for the ACDA collegiate division. During these sessions, Dr. Ronald Staheli, Director of Choral Activities at Brigham Young University, will present to the demonstration choir for preparing and introducing new music during the beginning rehearsals. In addition, he will offer a rehearsal time-line illustrating rehearsal planning techniques. Dr. Staheli will examine a wide range of repertory that is appropriate for collegiate ensembles. The sessions will be open for observation by non-participants.

The demonstration choir participants will be chosen from collegiate ensemble singers from the Southern Division ACDA by application and the recommendation of their conductor. The application is available on-line at www.acdaonline.org/conventions/2008/2008so.shtml

Fees for the demonstration choir are $100.00 ($25.00 application and $75.00 registration for the convention). Deadline for the receipt of applications is November 16, 2007. There is a Collegiate singers accepted for the demonstration choir will be notified by December 7, 2007.
